Read the following text. Then, answer questions (a) – (j).

Taman Negara

Malaysia Top Nature Destination

Let's explore the truly tropical life in Taman Negara! The 130 million years old virgin rainforest is waiting to share her pride heritage. Taman Negara is the largest national park in Malaysia. It straddles across three states in Peninsular Malaysia, namely Pahang, Terengganu and Kelantan. Sprawling across 4,343 square kilometres, Taman Negara is renowned for its absolutely pristine habitats and full spectrum of native animals, including critically endangered Sumatran rhinoceroses and Malayan tigers.

Taman Negara is the perfect place to explore if you love nature and outdoor activities. There are 4 pick-up points to start the tour – Kuala Lumpur, Jerantut, Kuala Tahan and Sg. Relau. You can experience walking on the world's longest canopy walkway - 530 m long and 40 m above the ground level. This is a must do activity in Taman Negara and certainly one of the most memorable memories for you to bring home. You can never forget the magnificent panoramic view of flora and fauna along the walkway. You can also enjoy visiting the aborigine village, trekking under rainforest canopy, climbing the highest mountain in Peninsular Malaysia, caving, fishing, camping, observing wildlife, and many more.

Discover, enjoy and release your stress here! Deep within the heart of Taman Negara lies this quiet retreat, surrounded by nothing but nature and the sense of impending adventure. As the saying goes:

TAKE NOTHING BUT PHOTOGRAPHLEAVE NOTHING BUT FOOTPRINTS

Question 3

Read the advertisement of smartphones for children below. Then, answer questions (a) – (j).

- the best “smaller” smartphones
- shares similar specs to the iPhone 6S
- has an excellent battery life
- 16GB of storage for RM2,066
- Apple offers a parental control system, known simply as “Restrictions”, which works by restricting controls for apps, internet browsing, camera, Siri voice interaction, microphone, movies, TV shows and more.
- You can limit, therefore, what content your child can access. Within the App Store, there is an age-based restriction that can be put in place for app and game downloads

iPhone SE

- great way for teens to step up from a basic phone
- Fun and friendly, a good alternative to the iPhone.
- RM3,268 for the 5-inch 32GB base model.
- comes with a fingerprint security to ensure nobody but you and your child can access private information
- Clever battery management, so your child is unlikely to claim the battery ran out when you want to contact them.
- Google also provides plenty of parental controls to prevent any unsuitable applications being accessed, 24/7 tech support, connecting to a safe and vetted Google expert.

Google Pixel

- best example of a device that offers a wide range of features
 - from calls and texts to apps, gaming and fast 4G connectivity
 - without breaking the bank.
- prices start at RM2,717
- because this is an Android phone, there are some very easy settings you can select to enable your children restricted to apps and games you want them to play.
- You can lock down the Google Play Store app or even limit access to specific apps themselves.
- It comes with the latest version of Android.

Moto Z

Microsoft Lumia 550

- budget phone with the Windows 10 experience
- An alternative to Android and Apple’s iOS software, yet still provides apps, games and internet connectivity.

- The Lumia 550 is a cheap option, with the Cortana voice assistant built in so your child can ask it questions that may help with homework.
- It costs around RM544.
- The phone also access to Microsoft’s My Family parental control system, which can help you manage which apps your child is able to download and use.

- It comes with a fingerprint scanner which will help you to feel at ease in terms of knowing your child's data is safe from prying eyes.
- The OnePlus 3 is priced at RM1,791
- It is an Android handset but some interesting features.
For example, your child can launch the camera by drawing an "O" on the screen in standby, or draw a "V" to switch on the torch/flashlight.
- It also has the same level of parental control as other Android phones.

Question 4

Read the text below.

Once upon a time, there was an affluent couple planning to throw a lavish party at their big mansion. In the morning, they went shopping at the market where everything was of high cost and fixed price. They wanted to maintain their level of standard so both didn't mind paying for it. After purchasing all they needed, they called a porter to carry everything and drop it at their home. The porter who came was of an old age, frail and looked as if he was not even able to meet his daily needs.

They asked the old porter about the charges for delivering their goods at their home. He quoted just a $20, a well below the market rate for delivering goods at couple's home in his cart. Yet, the couple argued and bargained with the old porter and finally settled for $15. The poor porter was struggling to make even one time's meal so he needed anything he could earn.

The couple happily paid the old porter $15 in advance and left after giving him their address for delivery. They reached their home and an hour passed, two hours passed, but the old porter still had not delivered their stuff. The wife started to be mad at her husband, "I always tell you to not to trust such person still, you never listen to me! Such person who is not even able to earn to feed himself for 1 time in a day, you just handed him everything. I am sure instead of delivering at our home; he must have disappeared with everything. We must immediately go back to the market to inquire and then to the police station to file the complaint against him".

They both hurriedly walked towards the market. On their way near the market, they saw another porter. They stopped the young boy to inquire about the old porter and noticed that he was carrying their stuff in his cart! The angry wife asked him, "Where is that old thief? This is our stuff and he supposed to deliver it. It seems you poor thieves are stealing our stuff and going to sell it".

The young porter patiently replied, "Madam, Please calm down. That poor old man was sick since last month. He wasn't able to earn enough to even have a single meal of the day. He was on the way to deliver your stuff, but he who was famished and sick, could not gather the strength to go any further in this heat of the noon". He fell down and while handing me $15, his last words were, "I had taken an advance for this delivery, and you take this and please deliver to this address".

"Madam, He was hungry, he was poor, but he was an honest man. I was just on the way to complete old man's last delivery at your home", the young porter said. Upon hearing this, the husband had tears in his eyes. The wife felt so ashamed and had no courage to see up in her husband's eyes.

Question 5

Read the poem below carefully. Then, answer questions (a) – (d).

The Day The Bulldozer Came by David Orme

The day the bulldozers came
Rooks were building
Crazy egg baskets in the oaks;
Green flies sizzled by the pond
And a cold-eyed toad
Waited for them.

The day the bulldozers came
Squirrels were scattering
Up tree trunks
And leapt from branches
That were hardly there.

The fox
Stirred in his sleep
As the ground trembles
 'Ha ha!' he thought
 'I'm quite safe
Deep down in the Earth
No one can get me here'
Then the bulldozers came.

(a) In stanza 1, what were the birds doing?

_____ [1 mark]
